

e-Survey

New software intended to increase the physician's participation during the meetings, and establish a continuity after the meeting itself that can be carried out over the whole marketing year.

e-Survey creates a database in Access

An interactive, on-site electronic survey about key questions or product indication, treatment practices, activities, etc. (TBD)

The e-survey software run on mobile systems (UMPS).